HUMANITYS' CRITICAL SPACE & TIME

That which is Cosmic Awareness is today available. That this Awareness would ask you now, Joan, to proceed.

Thank you, and welcome Cosmic Awareness, thank you for being with us today for the Rainbow-Phoenix Membership session of April 17, 2016. Will Berlinghof is the Voice of Cosmic Awareness, Joan Mills is the questioner and Energizer. Is there an opening message or any event you would like to discuss please, at this time? Thank you.

That this Awareness has an opening message. That this Awareness says to the members that you are right now in a very critical space and place as humanity, as individuals, moving into a different reality. That this Awareness for the last several months, has been emphasizing that the energies at this time are such that anything could happen and that those in power are indeed pushing things at this time, for they too understand the alignments of the planets and their forces, and of the energies that are playing themselves out now and they too realize that they could use these unstable and powerful energies to their advantage or at least, this is how they too see it.

That they could use those energies that could create the situations of advantage for them, that they can use this to their advantage and yet at the same time, there is a wildness about this time, an uncertainty of how things might come out. Therefore, even these ones who see that the energies are of a high nature and if utilized properly by them to gain that which they wish to gain, that which is their continuance of power, that even they cannot predict what will occur, for they no longer can see into the future as they once did.

That which was their ability to read different timelines from the timeless space of fourth dimensionality, is not effective or working for them as it once did, and that this is so since that time of the mass Ascension event that occurred in December of 2012, the Ascension event of December 21, 2012. Yet they have proceeded as if they will still achieve their goals, but it is no longer guaranteed and it is no longer that which suits Divine Source and Its purpose of bringing a new level of consciousness to humanity, to Mother Earth, and even to the solar system, the galaxies and the universe.

This is that which those in power right now do not comprehend or understand. It is as if they are automatons, automatic robots that are wound up and must proceed along the path that is set for them. They lack flexibility in this matter and because previous viewings of timelines showed that there were certain ones that they could use to their advantage because this was seen before December 21st, 2012, they are continuing along those options, those paths of possibility, that once showed them that this would be the way to go for them to achieve the results they wish to achieve.

There are other factors of course that are now playing themselves out, factors of intervention of the extraterrestrial beings that belong not to the Archonic forces, but to the forces of that which one could loosely call Divine Source and Divine Light.

That there are interventions that are happening and have been happening over the last several years, that have been shunting the ones who have been trying so hard, off of their path, that which they thought might come to be, and yet such as the inflexibility and thus the weakness of the powers-that-be that they cannot see that they are the powers-that-were and that the significance of their authority has been diminished, has been curtailed, and is not that which will proceed.

Having said this, this Awareness must also emphasize, this is only so for those who do not buy in any longer to the manipulations of those in power. The majority of humanity unfortunately is still being provoked towards reaction and towards certain response because they are not yet aware enough to see the manipulations or to understand that that which they assumed to be truth and reality of a third dimensional construct, that which is their reality is false by nature and manipulated by those who have a greater understanding of these events.

Having said this, this Awareness can also say that humanity itself is being moved towards events that will be so shocking in nature and so upsetting that previous tenants of faith and belief structures will crumble because the ones that have been pushing them are being deprived of their power and capacity to continue the sham and to continue the deception that they have been engaged in for hundreds and thousands of years.

There is that force that will help humanity even the ones that are totally unaware of things, who have not questioned, would not question, for they have bought into the reality constructs that have been given to them, that they have been indoctrinated into.

But the only way that this can happen are through extraordinary events. Events that do not go according to the plans of those who consider themselves to be in power, who have the right to do to humanity anything they wish as it has been and as they think it will continue to be.

These extraordinary events unfortunately, are events that could crumble existing structures of reality that most live their lives by.

For example: the assumption that if one works hard and has trust and faith in one's government that they will do alright. What will happen if the economic situation, for example, collapses? It is already a frightening state of affairs in the United States regarding the true levels of unemployment, that are not being reported accurately and many are already facing economic hardship because of a lack of employment and yet the belief is still they will be taken care of by their government, and that all will still work out.

However if an economic event of great magnitude were to occur and that the economic backing of the American dollar crumbles, is devalued, then the situation will grow much worse.

This Awareness is here to say that at this time, one of the events that the United States and the world itself globally, is being moved towards is the collapse of the American dollar as the currency of international standing. There are events taking place at this time: meetings between the bankers and the President and the Vice President, all in secret. There are negotiations underway that are pushing a China agenda, that there is a very strong likelihood of a collapse of the American economy in the next few weeks.

That this Awareness speaks of this, for these are the events and the plans that are being worked with by ones in the know. That most of course do not know anything of this and simply are proceeding under the assumptions that America is alright financially and it is too big to fail and that what America is doing is that which is the envy of the rest of the world without ever understanding that the situation of America, what with its stolen gold, the gold that is the nation's gold by your former leaders, by your industrialists, your corporate leaders, has left the country bereft of gold as a backing for the currency and that this is well known amongst many in the economic field who deal with these matters but it is hidden both from the American people and generally from the populace of the planet, and many proceed as if the American dollar is the bastion of all currencies, the strongest of all currencies, when in actuality the American dollar is the weakest of the international currencies, and that it is all based on lies and deceptions, smoke and mirrors, to keep up the illusion that America financially-speaking, is still a powerful nation and can weather the storms of economic disparity.

There have been in the last several years, groups that are moving towards the abandonment of the American currency which is based on petroleum, thus the petro-dollar, back to a gold standard-backed currency. That China is that nation at this time that is in the strongest economic position for they have gold and that there are manipulations and plans to move the international currency away from America and to China, thus the UN, the Yuan, the Chinese currency becomes the international currency and this is very close to happening, and if it does happen a series of events will occur in the United States that will see the devaluation of the American dollar.

That these will be preceded by a closing of the banks, that which will be called a bank holiday and that when the banks open again the dollar that was valued at one level will be much lower, having been devalued and that this will send shock waves through America and that there will be many collapses of many businesses and that many will find themselves in economic destitution and despair. That this can even happen as soon as May 2nd.

That this Awareness is putting this information out at this time, not to focus the attentions on this event happening. It is one event that could happen, one timeline that many are starting to energize. There is a strength to this timeline that must be acknowledged, but this Awareness would still say to one and all remember that you will receive what you focus upon.

That this Awareness presents this information to help you prepare for the shock of a collapse economically in the United States, but would also ask you to remember that it has been advising one and all towards that which this Awareness speaks of as sacred neutrality.

That this Awareness for several years has been speaking of the need not to go into panic or fear or meltdown, but to hold the space, to stay in that place of sacred neutrality with the understanding that this is what was needed, because the system itself, at the core, was and is corrupt, and that the corruption must finally be routed out, rooted out, must be removed, and if this means that the collapse will cause not the destruction of the United States, but rather its rebirth, so that a new system can happen and new leaders for the people and of the people can be elected.

For the deception that is prevalent in the United States of America and in other Western nations as well, which are following the lead of the United States of America is nothing short than the manifestation of these dark ones and the corruption that they are.

That because most do not question, most do not entertain even the thought that their own government that they have put on the highest pedestal in complete ignorance, in complete unawareness of the truth, that these very ones are the very ones that are causing great harm to the people and to the nation and to the planet itself, the global community of humanity, and it is for this reason that this Awareness has long been speaking of events that could happen to destroy the existing system and systems, to destroy the corruption of the leaders who would sell out and have sold out their own people for their own selfish profit.

This is that time. Prepare yourself now and be prepared, but also understand that you must be flexible, you must hold that no matter what happens, you will be alright, everything will work out, for you must also remember that Divine Source Itself, the Spirit of the Divine, the Spirit of your own multidimensionality in its expanded state, is also working towards coming through this event.

Therefore, even though an event of breakdown may soon occur, hold this as the time of breaking through, going through the blocks and the barriers.

That if one can maintain level footing, if one can maintain a clear head and if one can stay out of fear and panic and knee-jerk reaction, then one has a better chance of getting through the unfolding events.

That as one stays in that place of sacred neutrality, trusting that that which is happening is that which needs to happen to bring down the corrupt regime and that all will work out and that something much greater and much better than that which has been, replaces that which has been, then one will find that this journey, this transit through troubled times, although perhaps challenging, although perhaps a little frightening, is basically that which can be handled, and that which will indeed lead them as individuals and them as family units and them as cultural groups of a nation, that needs to be adjusted forward through the upheaval and to the place that lies beyond.

Hold a future that all will work out because that which is the corruption has been removed, hold that Divine Source is with you, walks with you, will not abandon you, has not abandoned you, and that this too is part of a much greater plan of Spirit that needs to happen, for a cleansing is desperately needed at this time, for the corpse of the nation that is America is rotting and this corpse must be restored to a higher status of its own beingness.

It is that which is represented by the resurrection, that Easter recently put this theme into mass consciousness, that the one known as Jesus had been crucified, sacrificed on the cross of materialism and physicality, had died for the sins of humanity.

That this is part of a propaganda of religion, of the Christian religion. But what is not propaganda is this understanding that if one lets go of that which no longer serves, which is only a deception and a deceit and one is willing to be born into the new truth of one's own being and the higher spiritual truths, that this will be the resurrection and the transmogrification of that which was at one level transcended into a higher level, consciousness itself, transcended from the restricted level of third dimensionality into the higher planes of fourth dimensionality and beyond into fifth dimensionality.

Remember this is all part of that which lies ahead and is possible but can only happen if that which is the rotting corpse that has been fed upon by ones who are vampires in nature, is finally released and let go and that this can only happen when certain events occur that while on the surface may seem horrible events, events of a great catastrophe, but in truth are those that serve the clearing and the cleansing of the rottenness of the decay, of the stench of deceit, of lies, of manipulation, of violence, of hatred, of all that which now is so, is held by those in power.

Therefore, be prepared for the energies are accumulating in terms of the economic collapse of the American dollar and the American economy. Remember that even if this happens, it does not mean that on a local level there are not sources of food or that you cannot still have shelter and protection, or that you will be crushed by it. This is not necessarily seen as that which will occur, unless, again this is emphasized, you believe that you will be crushed and destroyed by the circumstances that are being unleashed, by the events that are happening.

This Awareness has never completely spoken to the issue of an event that could happen and even while It is doing so now, It will still remind you that this is but a timeline of possibility, and that you are in a fulcrum point right now, before such an event happens, to focus yourselves in a direction, in an understanding of events that could occur, that would place you on a timeline other than that which is being outlined by this Awareness.

That this is your individual choice to hold that you can proceed in a different way and that which is being predicted by this Awareness does not need to be that which is your experience of reality, your experience of a timeline of events. That even though many are energizing this, these timelines of their individual making into mass, a mass timeline, even though energies are being collated here, collected towards this event to be so, that you, the individual, as a creator being, aligned with your own higher potential, and your own higher multidimensional nature, can still hold that all will be well, that there will be resolution to these events, and these dire events that this Awareness has been describing are not the events of your experience, are not the events of your timeline and for you these events may never unfold.

It would be a mistake however, to say that this means that this Awareness is wrong. It is not whether this Awareness is wrong or right, it is simply that this Awareness is sharing with you at this time, the energies that are underway.

It is fact that President Obama met with the Vice President Biden for a series of meetings, an unprecedented occurrence. It is true that bankers have been gathering in Washington over the last few days for discussions. It is true there are discussions happening with China. These are facts that are happening in many timelines, but does this mean that you the individual, the Creator being of your life, needs it to express itself as spoken by this Awareness for all that is, is that which is the majority energy that many will choose to experience, but not the guaranteed energy that must be experienced by each and every individual. Be the strong individual, hold that all will work out, that even if events collapse, this is but a great opportunity presented by Spirit to move yourself forward, to move yourself beyond the limitations that are so at this time for the majority of people. Choose your timeline, focus on this, hold it to be so and then let it go, be flexible, for that is what is most needed at this time: flexibility.

That even though the world is on the very precipice of an event of great magnitude and other events also seen, not simply the economic fields, that could also possibly erupt, that this Awareness is still indeed saying to one and all, do not focus on these events as that which will occur, hold it rather as this could happen, and if it does happen and you do experience this type of upheaval, that you hold that you will be alright, that you and your loved ones will manage this, will come through this and that it is a breakthrough and not simply a breakdown, and that no matter what, this is that which serves the greater purpose of Source and Spirit, that serves the greater purpose of humanity and Mother Earth.

These are unprecedented times, these are times of extraordinary events, hold it always that however things unfold, this is your opportunity to break through. This is your opportunity to grow and expand, this is your opportunity to release and heal those areas of your own life and those areas of your collective lives with others, that need healing, need release. That it is the time to move forward into these events and through these events, and if it is so that you experience nothing of this, then pat yourself on the back for this will mean that you have been able to truly focus on a timeline that is possible, a timeline where the destruction does not need to occur the way that many hold it, and many anticipate it, and if it is that you do experience upheaval and events around you collapse; then do not go into fear and panic, do not go into hopelessness, do not believe what you are being told, but hold rather that all will still work out.

There are other forces at play here, than simply the economic forces that you are told about or the extraterrestrial negative Archon ones you are told about or the religious beliefs that are prophesizing Armageddon. Do not go there, for if you focus your attention there you could indeed experience these as your reality.

Hold simply that all is collapsing, coming down because the structure itself is rotten and a new structure must now be built: but for this to occur, the old structure must come down and that if you are experiencing anything of this which is hard and challenging, know simply that this is the hard work and that there will be benefit from hard work in the sense that that which is removed can then be replaced with that which is sound and of the highest spiritual nature.

Know that this Awareness will not abandon you. Divine Source and Spirit will not abandon you. Your own multidimensional nature and family will not abandon you. This Awareness asks you not to abandon Source, not to abandon this Awareness, not to abandon your own multidimensional spiritual nature.

That this is that which this Awareness presents as Its advice at this time, the eve before amazing events, the time before a collapse that is needed.

That this Awareness sends Its energy to one and all in these outstanding times of possibility and potentiality. This Awareness holds that all will be well and asks that you hold this for yourselves and your loved ones as well. That the blessings and energies, the Light and the Love of this Awareness are there for one and all and it is so.

And so be it. Thank you Awareness, that was very, very interesting. The members I am sure will be pleased to have some insight as to what is going on. Thank you again.

That you are welcome, and that this Awareness would say that It would be well pleased if the majority never experienced anything of the events this Awareness is speaking of for it truly would be the indicator that they, those who have not experienced any of the events, have managed to set themselves upon timelines where such dramatic and extraordinary events need not take place and a more general peaceful transition does take place, where the forces of the Galactic ones that are here to assist and intervene, have had effect, where the powers of Divine Source have had influence and it is this that this Awareness will hold to be the experience of the majority and that this Awareness says it is possible for one and all who have such strong conviction and trust and faith that they can move through these outstanding changes in a much gentler way where change does occur but it does not necessarily mean the total collapse of all, because of factors unseen and unknown and unaccepted that will help and assist the transition.

Hold this to be the truth of your being and the timeline of choice for you and then release, let go, step into the sacred neutral and understand that no matter what happens, you will be alright and that you will come through this in fine form.

That is very, very hopeful and I really hope as well that the people recognize that this is possible. Thank you Awareness.
